September 2020—Pastor Tim's Thoughts

"Holding Future Plans Lightly in the Midst of Covid"

One of the things that was quickly learned as COVID-19 wrapped itself around the globe was that future plans need to be held lightly. Events like vacations or work travel or even sporting events are all subject (and likely) to change in a moment's notice. One of my plans that changed because of COVID was my Renewal Leave.

We had been talking about this for many months, preparing the congregation for a three-month leave. We held meetings and took polls of the congregation, and ended up writing a detailed grant application that would help fund this time of leave. The theme that we had used for the Renewal Leave was "Rooted" – the thought being that this would be a time to reconnect with our roots within ourselves, within our community and with God. However, as the reality of COVID set in, it became clear that postponing this Renewal Leave for another year was necessary. So, now my leave is scheduled for summer 2022.

Boo.

On the plus side, it means that we have more time to prepare for this time of renewal! Yay! To that end, I am excited to announce plans to begin working towards this Renewal Leave with an Enneagram Seminar on Saturday, November 21, 2020 via Zoom. I have found the Enneagram to be a marvelously useful tool in learning more about myself over the past many years. But it is so rich and complex, helping me to understand my relationships, my leadership style, and even my spirituality. I am excited to be able to lead this seminar for you at CtK (and beyond!). If you're interested in learning more about the Enneagram and beginning your own preparation for a time of Renewal, please let me know. A signup page for this seminar will be coming to our website soon, along with materials that you can read ahead of time.

Peace,

Pastor Tim

September 2020—Social Ministry News

CtK, Habitat Thanks YOU!

BIG thanks to our volunteers who came out to help at our CtK Habitat Build Day. We weren't working under our normal conditions, and it was hot. But Pete Olson and John Condie managed to put up all the batten on the back side of the house, and it looked very nice and finished! There would have been more volunteers if I had done a better job of explaining the build day was on Friday instead of our usual Saturday. I apologize. Thanks, guys.

Our Local Ministrys Partner Update

As we continue though this year with the local impacts of the pandemic, our local ministry partners, for the most part, have seen dramatic increases in their services. We would like to encourage the congregation to connect directly with these groups for two purposes: 1) with your financial support if possible; and 2) to explore any ways you might be able to help during this time. Several groups do have some potential projects that require volunteers. Volunteer situations would all be treated safely; but we understand that many of our people are not comfortable with any physical contact. That is understandable. But some of us are yearning for ways to actually HELP. So we encourage you to connect directly with these groups. Check out the information below to help you determine what ministry might be of interest to you in our continuing efforts to maintain CtK's deep connection with these groups during such trying times.

Durango Food Bank: www.durangoareafoodbank.org 970-375-2672

Habitat for Humanity: www.habitatlaplata.org 970-382-2215

Manna: www.mannasoupkitchen.org 970-385-5095

Volunteers of America: www.voacolorado.org 970-259-1021

The Social Ministry Team will be working to identify some potential projects, ideas that we will share with everyone at our Sunday, September 13th "God's Work. Our Hands" outdoor worship. So, stay tuned for those ideas, and we welcome ideas you may have that will enable CtK'ers to be safely involved with activities that are both beneficial to our community and show God's love!

September 2020—In Other News. . .

CtK Currently Remains Closed

Upon recommendations from the Office of the Bishop, “congregations and communities of faith are to continue to prioritize worship opportunities that are safe, accessible, invitational, meaningful, and sustainable. The use of an online/digital platform remains the highest recommended format for corporate worship through at least the end of the calendar year. Any in-person worship experience should prioritize an outdoor venue, small groups, physical distancing, and the use of face coverings. There is a strong likelihood that corporate, in-person worship that is able to include all parishioners inside of a church building will not be advisable well into 2021.” While the Bishop does not have the authority to mandate congregations to do this, the recommendation of the Bishop does carry significant weight in our decisions, along with the guidance of local public health officials. While disheartening news, CtK will continue suspension of in-person worship services and meetings until further notice. At this time, worship services for Wednesdays at 6pm and Sundays at 9:15am (worship, then fellowship) are offered online via Zoom, and two more outdoor worship services are planned: Sundays, September 13th and October 4th. These outdoor services will also be streamed via Zoom. CtK continues to offer Thursday Noon Bible Study online each week. It is hoped that the form of these online services will be meaningful to you. (*For more information on Zoom webinars, please refer to the webinar links list below).

Christ the King Lutheran Church continues to need your financial support, especially in this time of need. Giving financially to Christ the King Lutheran Church is vital to continue these ministries that work to sustain and strengthen you and your faith in these trying times. You can give to Christ the King Lutheran Church in many ways. Visit <http://www.ctkdurango.org/learn-more/give> for more information and links to give online.

During this unprecedented time in our lives, you are encouraged to do whatever you can to promote the public health, especially for those who are most vulnerable. If you are healthy and are able to help with grocery shopping, to run errands, or help in any other way, please email pastortim@ctkdurango.org. He will do his best to connect those who have needs to those who have offered their help.

Remember to take care of yourselves. Go for walks. Laugh and talk with neighbors (from a safe distance and wearing your facemask). Wash your hands well and often. Enjoy the beauty of creation in which we live. Get off your computer and away from news and just read a book for a while. Play a board game. Take part in fun faith formation resources that we have available to you online at www.ctkdurango.org. Be patient, kind, and compassionate as always. Remember that this hardship will come to an end. Pray that it comes quickly.

Memories of the Corona Virus-19 Project

As the Covid-19 Pandemic rages on, it has become obvious that the CtK ComMission Team's project to collect memories of the affect this pandemic has had on our church community should carry on; perhaps without a deadline. In case you missed the first notification of the project, here is a brief synopsis and an invitation to join us in our effort to preserve something about this huge, historic event.

Covid-19 has changed all of our lives in some way: how we work (or don't work), how we spend our free time (if we are not first responders or caregivers who don't seem to get much free time), how we worship, how we stay in touch with each other, and so much more. State and local rules to help us stop the spread of this infection, for which we have no cure and no vaccine, seem to change daily if not hourly. The ComMission Team wonders how it has affected you and your family, how you have been coping with the circumstances, maybe even what new and wonderful things you have learned or decided to try during this challenging time. So, send us your stories, poems, drawings, photography – anything that can be kept in a binder/book format in our Church Library. Share your stories – happy, sad, funny, innovative, thoughtful, or insightful. We welcome your input.

Please email your contributions to Megan Reid at: mreid1451@bresnan.net or regular mail to: 2403 Thomas Avenue, Durango, CO 81301. Be sure to sign and date your contribution and let us know the best way to contact you if we have any questions. Megan can also be reached at 970-247-2577.

A Note of Thanks...

To My CtK Family and Friends,

Thank you all so much for your prayers and well wishes! They strengthen me each day when I recall them.

*Love,
Julie Williams*
